Charity—The Greatest Masonic Virtue?

This is the season of the year when Charity is inescapable. We are barraged by postal mail and email exhorting us to donate to a seemingly endless variety of causes, many of which we may never have heard of but which purchased our contact information from some other organization that sells it to make money. This seasonal occurrence shouldn't be surprising, since surveys indicate that people are most favorably inclined to donate during the November-December holiday period. And, of course, the end of the year brings the inevitable planning in anticipation of income tax filing.

But anyone affiliated with Freemasonry shouldn't be overly offended by charitable solicitations—perhaps merely bemused—since, from our earliest associations with Freemasonry, we were taught the virtue of Charity (among many other virtues).

Masonic scholars such as Albert Pike (Morals and Dogma) and Albert Mackey (e.g., Encyclopedia of Freemasonry) cite Biblical references to Charity, particularly First Corinthians XIII, in which St. Paul asserts that in comparison to Faith and Hope, Charity is the greatest of the three. But we are also reminded that the concept of Charity is much broader than making donations to the poor and less fortunate. Together with other scholars such as John Wesley, we are informed that when the Bible was translated from Greek, the English word should have been Love, not Charity.

Freemasonry, of course, teaches the more expansive definition of Charity as Love. We are taught that even if we accept the more limited definition of Charity as making donations, we are to practice Charity out of Love for our fellow man; not, for example, merely in anticipation of securing a deduction on our income tax form.

There is, of course, nothing wrong, and much right, about the income tax law that offers deductions for charitable contributions. If income tax law is to be used to encourage certain financial behaviors, the charitable deduction must certainly be one of the most worthy.

Our Lakewood Masonic Foundation, as with all other legitimate charities, offers the potential of a federal income (or estate) tax deduction to the extent permitted by law. (Neither our Operating Fund nor our Endowment Fund qualify, although we encourage donations to those Funds from people who don't need or want a tax deduction.)

In recent years federal tax law has been amended to create a new opportunity for IRA owners to make charitable donations directly from an IRA. Beginning in the year the owner turns 70-1/2, the owner must withdraw a certain minimum amount each year, known as the Required Minimum Distribution (RMD), which then becomes part of the owner's annual taxable income—EXCEPT, that a donation made directly from an IRA to a registered charity (such as our Lakewood Masonic Foundation) is counted as part of the RMD but NOT as taxable income. This special treatment may or may not be beneficial depending on the owner's tax bracket. As always you should consult your legal and tax advisors.

Will YOU help us yet this year? You may make your gift using the form on page 11.

Appreciated Assets As One-Time Gifts

With stock markets once again approaching their all-time highs, the opportunity to make gifts in the form of appreciated assets becomes more attractive to many donors.

There are various reasons to use appreciated assets to make one-time gifts to an organization such as The Lakewood Masonic Foundation. Chief among them are the sense of personal satisfaction you will achieve from making a special gift and the likely benefit you will receive from the unique tax breaks for this type of gift.

A gift of an appreciated asset often provides you with a greater tax benefit than a gift of cash. For example, a gift of appreciated stock that you have held for more than 12 months can be deducted at its current value if you itemize deductions, and you won't have to pay capital gains tax on the appreciated portion of your gift. As always, you are encouraged to consult with your legal and tax advisors before making a gift of this type.

There are two ways to use appreciated assets—such as stocks, bonds, mutual fund shares, real estate and insurance policies—to make a special gift. One option is to donate the asset outright, meaning that it would be transferred immediately from you to The Lakewood Masonic Foundation. Another option is to fund a lifetime income gift, which will provide you with income for your lifetime or for some other specified period of time. If you are interested in donating an appreciated asset, please contact The Lakewood Masonic Foundation, 15300 Detroit Avenue, Lakewood, OH 44107-3888 to discuss proper arrangements. You may also email donate@lakewoodmasonicfoundation.org.

If you prefer to make a more straightforward gift, you may simply write a check using the form in our newsletter (see page 11), by responding to our letter appeals or by adding a donation to your annual dues.

You may designate your gift or bequest to be used for our historic preservation, educational or charitable purposes; split your gift among these purposes; or simply ask that your gift be devoted to our greatest need. All gifts, other than a small percentage spent for printing and mailing, are used for our stated purposes.

Your donation is a special way of showing your love for our Lakewood Masonic Family and for our historic home. Our 2016 Centennial is upon us, and we still have lots of catch-up maintenance to complete on our facilities.

While gifts and bequests may be directed to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation, our Lakewood Masonic Temple Endowment Fund or our Lakewood Masonic Temple Company Operating Fund, please note that only gifts and bequests to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation are deductible for federal income and estate taxes to the extent permitted by law. Gifts to our Endowment and Operating Funds are not deductible; but, depending on your tax situation, deductibility may not be an issue for you.

Master's Message

Brethren:

You've exalted me to the Oriental Chair, and I'm truly honored and humbled by your confidence in me to govern this Lodge. I will do my very best to make this Masonic year one of education and development. Our progressive line of officers is a young one, and they're full of fervency and zeal with none being Past Masters, so make sure you come out to Lodge and support them in their endeavors to serve our Lodge. This younger generation of Masons seeks to ignite the fraternal bond of brotherly love, relief, and truth.

Please make sure that the Lodge has your current contact and mailing information, including email. We will be making every effort to contact our members with updates of degree work, Lodge events, and welfare checks. Also, check our Lodge website as it is updated regularly; and there you will find our Trestleboard. Add our Lodge meetings to your calendars and your electronic portable devices so you'll always have reminders of Lodge meetings and happenings.

I would like to wish you and your family happy holidays.. Make sure to spend quality time with loved ones and friends, as life is too short to miss opportunities to bond with family and friends. December is a slow Masonic month for us with the holiday season, so plan accordingly. We won't waste any time in 2018, so January and February will be busy months for us. January 11 we will be hosting a 22nd Masonic District Typewritten Ritual Night with focus on the EA Degree to help us prepare for our annual Inspection. The meeting will start at 7:00p prompt, and refreshments will be served after the meeting. Please, come join us!

Our annual Inspection will be held on February 22 at 7:00p prompt, and we will be inspected in the EA Degree. Please come show your support and assist us in our work. We also have candidates awaiting to receive degrees, and they will be conferred, so make sure to check the Trestleboard regularly so as not to miss these dates, as your participation is earnestly solicited if within the length of your cable-tow.

This Masonic year will be both exciting and laborious, but there is no doubt that we will reap the fruits of our labors. Our Grand Master's theme is, "Embrace our Heritage. . . Preserve our Traditions" during this Masonic year. I'm looking forward to seeing all of you in Lodge this year; and feel free to contact me anytime with concerns, issues, or questions that you may have. Onwards and Upwards!

Master's Message

Brethren,

I am honored that you have entrusted me with the leadership of this Lodge as Worshipful Master. Only a few years ago my life brought my Masonic journey to Cleveland from Plymouth, Michigan; and this distinction is yet another assurance from the Great Architect that I am where I am supposed to be. It was August of 2010 when I was there raised to the Sublime Degree; and promptly after making proficiency was invested with a Steward's jewel, which in Plymouth Rock Lodge meant not only a cornucopia but also a key to the dumpster outside. Since that time Freemasonry has been a catalyst for change in my life, and the lessons taken therefrom have done much to shape this rough stone into one that you as fellow builders have deemed fit for use in the building of this Lodge. Many nights after a Lodge meeting I have, with my Brethren, sat late in empty dining halls, stood in parking lots in the cold, or enjoyed a drink at a bar while in deep discussion about the teachings of Freemasonry. Those moments not only helped to cement the lessons, but also to grow my love for our Craft. As Worshipful Master I hope to pass on the benefit of those lessons, and that sense of commitment to the Craft, to every candidate that comes to our door as I preside in the East. I have received much light from our fraternity, and I am thankful for the opportunity to dispense that light to the future of our institution. I am especially thankful to the Past Masters of Lakewood Lodge (and other Lodges), immediate and otherwise, who have helped to guide me on my way and have been as willing to give, as I have been to receive, instruction and advice for my year ahead.

As we approach the holiday season, I would like to focus on two lessons in particular to keep with you on your travels near and far. The first is to keep in mind the lesson of the compasses as we go about our business during this active time of year. The demands of the season can often be a source of stress and aggravation, whether it be from crowds of shoppers, hurried motorists, tight schedules, or friends and family dealing with the same. As Masons, let us not forget we are charged to circumscribe our passions, especially when we are out in public as representatives of the Craft. Let us also remember this as we go about our own work, and not allow our zeal for one aspect of the season to consume us and cause us to neglect other areas. To be circumscribed is to also be in balance. The second lesson is that of charity. No other time of year has a greater focus on charity than

Matron's Message

Sisters and Brothers:

Ann Rutledge has been a busy Chapter lately. I hope you have been able to join us. We kicked off our 97th year on November 1, 2017, with our Installation of Officers. The year has been dedicated to charity, and we have some exciting things planned in our community. Starting things off right, we implemented a soup kitchen donation after every meeting. In Ann Rutledge tradition we will continue hosting refreshments or a light dinner. Look for the soup crock when you join us; and, if you are able, drop a few coins or dollars in the pot. We are choosing one soup kitchen or food pantry a month to receive all proceeds. We hope that we can show our appreciation for the meals we are granted by giving to those who are hungry and in need.

Along the lines of our charity projects, we will be hosting a Lakewood family with special needs children for the holidays. Please look for the giving tree and, if able, help by purchasing one of the suggested gifts.

The theme of our year is Stars, and we plan to honor some of the "Stars of Eastern Star." On January 17 we will begin by honoring our Star Point Ada. We invite all current and past "Adas" from Ann Rutledge and surrounding Chapters to join in our celebration. We will learn a bit more of her story and share some of our own memories. We look forward to hearing memories and traditions from years and Chapters past.

High Priest's Message

Companions:

We are entering into the hard work part of our year as we start our degrees. I hope everyone is up to this challenge. When you read this we will have already conferred the Mark Master degree on November 15. I think we did a very good job. The Blue Lodges are starting their new year with all new officers. Please attend as many Installations as you can to show our support, remembering that upon their success rests our own. I would like to share a quote from one of our departed brothers; he said, "With courage you will dare to take risks, have the strength to be compassionate and the wisdom to be humble. Courage is the foundation of integrity." Thank you, Brother Clemens. Remember, Companions, our integrity is our foundation; and we all need a strong footing on which to build our Spiritual House.

At our December 20 stated convocation we will confer the Past Master Degree. We will practice the Most Excellent Master Degree at our January 17 stated convocation in preparation for conferral at our February 21 stated convocation—our annual Inspection. Please contact me if you can take even a small part. Someone did it for you; now pass the favor on.

Please keep up your efforts to recruit new members for our Chapter. Our petition form can be downloaded from a link on our home page. Royal Arch Chapters are the gateway to the York Rite. Councils and Commanderies depend on our success.

In closing I hope all of you had a Happy Thanksgiving and wish you a Merry Christmas as well as Happy Holidays and a prosperous New Year.

Stated Assembly First Wednesday 7:30 p.m. • www.lakewood125rsm.org

Master's Message

Companions:

Our current Cryptic Year is well underway! We began with our third annual Table Council in September featuring a thought provoking presentation from visiting Companion Abraham Kay, one of our favorite local Masonic scholars. At Grand Council in October we were recognized for our contributions to the Diabetic Kids Fund over the past year and with a Gold Award for achieving the $25,000 level of cumulative donations to the Fund. In November we conferred the Royal Master Degree on two of our own candidates and hosted the annual 7th Arch School of Instruction.

Our December 6 stated assembly will be devoted to practicing the Select Master Degree in anticipation of conferring it at our January 3 stated assembly—our annual Inspection. We may have as many as four of our own candidates for our Inspection, including a Grand Lodge officer. On our January 3 Inspection night we will have a dinner at 6:30p. Please make a reservation so we can get a good count. Email me or leave a phone message.

Starting in February we will turn our attention to roles in the several sections of the Super Excellent Master Degree, ranging from speaking parts to simply walking as one of the Twenty Companions. We would especially like to have experienced line leaders for the Twenty Companions—two Companions who can lead the two columns through the perambulations.

We're always looking for Companions to take parts in all of our degrees. Even seemingly minor roles such as Workmen and Twenty Companions are essential to the presentations of our degrees. (We could have used a few more Giblites in November!) Please contact me if you can help.

The season for recruiting additional candidates never ends. We can always arrange for courtesy work at other Councils to get mid-year petitioners "caught up." Our petition form is available online from a link on our home page.

Commander's Message

Sir Knights:

What a glorious night we had at our November stated conclave! Under the leadership of Deputy Division Commander SK Bob Esarey (our own Captain General), we hosted full form conferrals of the Orders of Red Cross and Malta by composite casts from the 7th and 9th Divisions. The 12 new Knights included one of our own. In addition to visitors from other Commanderies, we were honored by the presence of SK Michael Bess, Right Eminent Grand Commander of the Prince Hall Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Ohio and its Jurisdictions. Moreover, to the great delight of our dinner guests, the Ladies of Cleveland Assembly, Social Order of the Beauceant, prepared a sumptuous Thanksgiving Feast featuring roasted turkeys and many traditional side dishes. We quickly became the envy of many visiting Sir Knights, especially when they learned that we are the beneficiaries of these repasts prior to every stated conclave. In addition to sharing dinner with us, the Ladies use the voluntary dinner donations to support their own charities and ours. Holy Grail and Cleveland Beauceant were jointly honored by the presence of Ms. Kimberly Burnett of Columbus Beauceant, Supreme Worthy First Vice President of the Supreme Assembly SOOB. Didn't I say this was a glorious night?

Beginning with our December 13 stated conclave we will be turning our attention to the Order of the Temple in preparation for our annual Inspection on Saturday, March 17, which necessarily includes a Full Form Opening. Our senior progressive line officers will be performing their roles for the first time; so, Sir Knights, it's time to break out your ritual and tactics books! Finally, NOW is the time to recruit additional candidates. Our 7th Division is planning another Red Cross/Malta night in the near future.

President's Message

Beauceant, an organization of wives, widows, mothers, daughters, sisters, and granddaughters of Knights Templar as well as mothers, sisters, daughters, granddaughters of Beauceant members, has an expressive ritual. The lessons taught are beautiful and impressive, centered around a theme of "Faith, Loyalty and Love for God, the Order of Knights Templar, and each other." This is expressed through fellowship activities, acts of loving-kindness, and support for Knights Templar.

On October 28 we joined with Columbus Assembly No. 79 to welcome the Supreme Worthy President, (Mrs. Dean) Eddie Rein, for her Official Visit. It was a wonderful afternoon, beginning with a luncheon, and then having the joint meeting.

An act of support, as well as fellowship, is the pre-meeting covered dish meal before each meeting. Both Beauceant and Commandery members enjoy sampling the ladies' special dishes. One special meal was served on November 8, when an early Thanksgiving dinner was served. Thank you to all who contribute dishes for the meals.

On December 27 we will gather at 11:00a at the Western Reserve Masonic Community to celebrate Christmas. There is a luncheon and a $5.00 edible gift exchange. We are looking forward to a fun afternoon with our members and their guests. Contact Mrs. Wadge or Mrs. Wykoff for reservations.

Lovingkindness is expressed in several ways. Since 1957, Beauceant has assisted the Knight Templar Eye Foundation through donations, memorials, and bequests. Although this is our major charity, Cleveland Assembly also provides blankets, clothing, silk flowers, and memory boxes for Metro-Health Medical Center's stillborn and neonatal death program. Also, we collect aluminum can tabs to defray the cost for transport of children to Shriners' Crippled Children's Hospitals and Burn Centers for treatment.

Members, please plan to attend the closed Installation on January 10.

Finances

According to universal usage on Freemasonry, the Treasurer of the Lodge or other Body is the banker or depositary of the finances of the Lodge. They are first received by the Secretary, who receipts for them, and immediately pays them over to the Treasurer. The Treasurer distributes them under the orders of the Master and the consent of the Lodge. This consent can only be known officially to him by the statement of the Secretary, and hence all orders drawn on the Treasurer for the disbursement of money should be countersigned by the Secretary.

now, when it is arguably needed the most. I encourage all the Brethren to embrace any of the many opportunities to practice charity this season. I am happy to report that I had several of our Brethren join me for the Lakewood Charitable Assistance Corporation's food drive, which takes place in our own Lakewood Masonic Temple. This organization collects food items for Thanksgiving and Christmas and distributes them to Lakewood residents in need. I would love to see more Brethren come out for the Christmas drive, which will be taking place on December 15 & 16. More information can be found at <http://www.lcac.info/events.html> or on our website, Facebook page, or in our Facebook Messenger group.

Lastly, speaking of our presence online, I would like to make sure all the Brethren are aware of our website at <http://www.lakewoodfreemasons.com>. Also, if you are a Facebook user, please make sure to like our Lakewood Lodge #601 page. If you would like to be added to the Facebook Messenger chat group please contact me. Finally, if you wish to receive email notifications about Lodge activities, please check in with our Secretary to ensure your email address is correct in our records.
